M.M. KUMAR, J. (ORAL)

This petition is pending since 2001. On September 7, 2001, a Division Bench passed the order observing that the case was called twice but no body had appeared for the petitioner. Upon the direction issued by Hon'ble the Chief Justice, all cases which have been adjourned sine die were directed to be put up before the Benches according to roster. When the matter came up for our consideration on August 25, 2006, learned counsel for the petitioner again sought one last opportunity to address arguments which we permitted with the observation that no further adjournment was to be granted. Counsel for the petitioner is not present again. Accordingly, we dismiss the petition for non-prosecution.
